7.1.4 Describe the Institutional efforts/initiatives in providing an inclusive environment i.e., tolerance and harmony towards cultural, regional, linguistic, communal socioeconomic diversity and Sensitization of students and employees to the constitutional obligations: values, rights, duties and responsibilities of citizens (Within 500 words)

Response: India is a diverse country in the world. Students will remember an important day only if they are told what the occasion signifies. Celebrating events and festivals in our Institute has become an integral part of learning and building a strong cultural belief. These celebrations bring the students closer to each other's traditions and cultural beliefs and develop respect and understanding for each other's customs and traditions. There are three types of celebrations namely seasonal, national and religious.

The objectives of celebrating these festivals are: National festivals will heighten the patriotic spirits in students, enabling them to grow into better citizens. Celebrating a seasonal festival changes students' attitudes towards Mother Earth and nature. Religious festivals teach students about the importance of family, tradition and values. It gives an insight into the culture and its principles. International festivals will create an increased cheerful ambiance and deepen the bonds with other races. It provides an inclusive environment for everyone with tolerance and harmony towards cultural, regional, linguistic, communal socio-economic and other diversities. Different sports and cultural activities organized inside the college promote harmony towards each other. India is a diverse country where people belonging to various cultural backgrounds reside. Therefore, all through the year, our college witnesses a variety of festivals and occasions. A few celebrations are Gandhi Jayanti Celebration: This day is celebrated as the "International Day of Nonviolence" worldwide. The main objective of celebrating this day is to remember the man who showed the world that nonviolence is an effective and lasting way of defeating injustice. He is a great inspiration for truly embodying the principles of tolerance and peace. On this day students and staff participate in Swach Bharat Abhiyan and carry out cleaning in and around the Campus.

Communal and Socio-Economic Diversities: The Institute runs distinctive events like rallies to support an environment that unites the diverse student populations. Every year, a blood donation drive is held in association with a blood bank from Nagpur. The institute offers free medical camps to neighboring villages through the NSS camp. KITS organized a COVID Vaccination Drive camp on the college premises in association with the government's primary health center. NSS volunteers collect groceries and clothes during Diwali to cater to the needs of poor people and celebrate in old age homes. The NSS conducts tree plantations, cleaning in the local area and plastic cleaning activities. Safety Aid Programmes are conducted for students, teaching and nonteaching staff members. Health awareness camps and seminars, road safety awareness camps, and green and energy initiative awareness rallies are conducted by NSS and NCC.
